

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TO THE CITIZENS OF BERKS COUNTY.

The undersigned herewith offers to the citizens of the county, a book which he believes will give satisfaction. A book of this kind, showing the County Officers for each year of Old Berks, from its erection to the present day, together with the vote at our popular elections, has long been sought for by many of our citizens. The compilation of this book has been a laborious task. The books in the different offices, for the first half century of this county, are made up of from two to twelve sheets of paper, with wrapping-paper covers—some no covering at all; many of the transactions are found on a slip of paper pinned to a leaf in some one of these copy books. Therefore, instead of taking collections from regularly kept books, as they are now conducted by our worthy officers, I was obliged to take them from loose scraps of paper stowed away nobody knew where. The author has spared neither pains nor time in taking these collections; he would therefore solicit the patronage of a generous Public.

The acknowledgments of the compiler are due the different Court-House officers, the Editors of the Reading Advertiser, the Reading Gazette and Democrat, and Henry Rhoads, Esq. To these gentlemen, who rendered their services to the writer while collecting materials, he would thus publicly return his thanks for their kindness.

AMOS K. STRUNCK.

BOYERTOWN, BERKS COUNTY, March, 1859.

ERECTION OF BERKS COUNTY.

A petition was presented to the General Assembly, February 4th, 1752, asking an Act to erect a County to be called Berks; population about seven thousand. The Town of Reading had, at the time, 378 inhabitants. By Act of March 11th, 1752, the County was erected under the Honorable James Hamilton, Governor of Pennsylvania. By the same Act, Edward Scull, Benjamin Lightfoot and Thomas Cookson were appointed to run the County line, taken partly from Philadelphia, Chester and Lancaster counties. Alsace, Exeter, Amity, Albany, Oley, Hereford, Douglass and Colebrookdale townships were taken from Philadelphia county; Union township from Chester county, and Cærnarvon, Robeson, Tulpehocken, Heidelberg, Bethel, Bern and Cumru townships from Lancaster county; which were all the townships of Berks County at the time of its erection.

The officers elected at the General Elections, or appointed in the latter part of the year, will be the officers given for the succeeding year. For instance: the member elected for Congress in October, 1858, will be the member for the year 1859; and so with all the other officers—with this exception, however: for the officers given for the year 1752, because the Judges residing in the county and holding commissions, acted as such, and the Clerks of the different Courts were early appointed. There was process issued in the month of August, and the Commissioners elected met and transacted business on the 13th October. The first Deed was recorded November 17th, 1752; the Will of Thomas Lloyd was probated November 29th, 1752, and the first Court held at Reading in November of the same year.

The following will show the manner in which the different offices have been established and filled from time to time:

CONGRESS,

Or Members of the House of Representatives of the United States.

This office was created by the Constitution of the United States, ratified at Philadelphia, September 17th, 1787. The first Congress convened March 4th, 1789. They are elected for two years. Berks, Lebanon and Dauphin has heretofore formed a Congressional District, and elected two members. Only the member for Berks is given. Berks county has for a long time been a separate District, and elects one member. In 1820, Joseph Hiester, being a member, was elected Governor of Pennsylvania, and resigned his seat. By special election, held 26th December, Ludwig Worman was elected to serve to 4th March, 1821, by a majority of 67 votes; he was also elected in October, for two years. In 1838, Henry A. Muhlenberg having resigned, by election held in March, George M. Keim was elected. January 10th, 1854, Henry A. Muhlenberg, the younger, a member for Berks, died at Washington. By special election, held January 31st, J. Glancy Jones was elected. In October, 1858, J. Glancy Jones resigned his seat. By special election, held November 30th, William H. Keim was elected to serve to 4th March, 1859.

SENATE.

This office was created by the Constitution of 1790; Senators were first elected in October, 1790, for four years. After the Constitution of 1837-8, they were elected for three years. From 1790 to 1808, Berks and Dauphin constituted a Senatorial District, and elected two members; from 1808 to 1812, Berks alone a District, with two members; from 1812 to 1836, Berks and Schuylkill a District, with two members; after 1836, Berks alone a District, and elects one Senator.

ASSEMBLY,

Or Members of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania,

Have been annually elected from the formation of the Government, under William Penn, to the present day. From 1752 to 1771, Berks elected one member; from 1771 to 1776, two; from 1776 to 1781, four; from 1781 to 1786, six; from 1786 to 1812, five; from 1812 to 1829, Berks and Schuylkill formed a District, with five members; from 1829, Berks has been a District, with four members, except in 1829, only three; from 1857, she elects three. Before 1839, the Legislature met from October to December; since 1839, it meets on the first Tuesday of January.

JUDGES.

By Act of 22d May, 1722, a competent number of persons shall be commissioned by the Governor, to be Justices of the County Courts during good behavior; no number being specified, therefore there were some years more than others. It appears they all had equal powers. By Act of 13th April, 1791, President Judges were appointed, and not fewer than three, nor more than four Associate Judges in each county. By Act of 24th February, 1806, if a vacancy shall happen in any county by death, resignation or removal of any Associate Judge, the Governor shall not supply the same, unless the number be less than two. From and after 1810, there were only two Associate Judges in Berks county. By the Constitution of 1837-8, President Judges were commissioned for ten years and Associates for five. By Act of 15th April, 1851, President and Associates were made elective; the former for ten years, and the latter for five years. First election, October, 1851.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

By Act of 3d May, 1850, this officer is made elective for three years. Before that time, they were appointed by the Attorney General. It appears there were no appointments in Berks county prior to 1789.

SHERIFF.

This office is as old as the Government of Pennsylvania; is elected for three years, and enters on the duties of office immediately after election, and at present cannot be re-elected.

CORONER.

This officer is first found in Berks in 1784, and was elected annually until 1790, since when he is elected every three years.

PROTHONOTARY, REGISTER, RECORDER, CLERK OF ORPHANS' AND GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE.

These officers were appointed by the Governor until 1839, since when they are elected for three years.

TREASURER.

The County Treasurer has been appointed by the County Commissioners annually. From 1841, he is elected for two years, and of late may be re-elected.

COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of Commissioners consists of three; one is elected annually to serve three years.

DIRECTORS OF THE POOR.

By Act of Assembly, March 29th, 1824, to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the Poor in the county of Berks; by said Act seven Directors were appointed. At next election three were elected: one for one year, one for two years, one for three years; after which, one was elected annually, for three years.

STEWARD.

The Steward of the House of Employment is appointed annually by the Directors. The first appointment was made in 1825.

AUDITORS

Were first appointed by the Court of Common Pleas, in 1797. From 1809 to 1814, three were elected annually, for one year. In 1814, three were elected: one for one year, one for two years, one for three years; after that, one each year, to serve three years.

COUNTY SURVEYOR.

This officer was first appointed for Berks county April 5th, 1800, by the Surveyor General, under the title of Deputy Surveyor. From 1835, two were appointed; from 1850, one is elected every three years, under the title of County Surveyor.

MERCANTILE APPRAISER

Is annually, on the first Monday of January, appointed by the County Commissioners, since 1854.

SEALER OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

This officer is appointed by the Governor, for three years. First appointment in 1852.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS.

This officer is elected every three years, by the School Directors of the county, who meet at Reading for that purpose, in the month of June every third year. The first election took place in June, 1854.

The votes polled in Berks county for the different candidates at the Presidential and Governors' elections, will be given on the page of the year wherein the elections took place. It may seem strange to the reader that the votes polled at the Presidential elections prior to the year 1844, were much smaller than at the Governors' elections of the same period, but it was nevertheless the case; and not only in Berks county, but in the State of Pennsylvania; but from and after that period, the vote has been larger. The vote of the State will here be given; in some years wherein both elections took place. In 1796, at the
